

Prostitute Protection Act (Prostituiererschutzgesetz) – brief summary

Since July 1st 2017, all persons working in Prostitution have been required to register.

The following require registration:

- Working in a brothel, in an apartment, in a love hotel or in a love mobile
- Services such as erotic or tantric massages
- Working as a dominatrix or an escort

Prostitute Protection Act (ProstSchG) § 3 und § 10:

You will receive a certificate after the health consultation.

When you register as required, you will receive the registration confirmation (green card) from the residents' registration office.

You must be able to present these certificates upon request during inspections.

Step 1 Health consultation in the health department

A requirement for registering the occupation is prior health counseling at the Department of Health of the City of Halle (Saale).

You will receive important information on health and social issues in a personal consultation.

The consultation is confidential and free of charge.

Your Data will not be stored or shared.

If requested, a working name (alias) can be noted on a second certificate instead of the real name. The alias on the certificate and on the registration form must be identical.
